

Other questions related to Week 6 and 7

1. Rizal studied two courses during his first year at the University of Santo Tomas. (False. He only enrolled in one course during his first year).
2. His piece El Consejo de los Dioses was in honor of Spain's foremost writer Manuel de Cervantes. (False. Spain's writer was Miguel de Cervantes.)
3. Rizal took up Medicine major in Optometry. (False. His major was Ophthalmology.)
4. The Circulo Hispano Filipino was an organization composed of both Spanish and Filipino members. (True)
5. Juan Luna and Felix Resurreccion Hidalgo won first and second for their art entries in the Barcelona Art Exposition. (False. They joined the Madrid Art Exposition.)
6. Uncle Tom's Cabin was a novel which depicted the plight of the African black slaves. (False. It was about the American black slaves.)
7. Rizal opened a gymnasium in Calamba where he taught the youth European sports like fencing and wrestling. (True)
8. It was the Dominican friars who owned most of the land in Calamba, Laguna. (True)
9. Leonor Rivera was Rizal's inspiration in writing the character of Maria Clara in Noli Me Tangere. (True)
10. There were full-blooded Spaniards who defended Rizal's first novel. (True)

Week 8

1. Jose Ma. Basa was a Spaniard who got exiled in Hong Kong as a result of his participation in the 1872 Cavite mutiny. (False. Basa was a Filipino.)
2. Rizal met Japanese politician Tetcho Suehiro on his way to Japan. (False. They met when Rizal was on his way to the U.S.)
3. Rizal's ship was quarantined in the U.S. because the American authorities believed there was an outbreak of the Bubonic plague in Asia. (False. It was because of the cholera outbreak.)
4. Sucesos de las Islas Filipinas was a history book written by Antonio Morga, a secular Spaniard. (True)
5. Rizal's annotation of Sucesos de las Islas Filipinas was published in England. (False. It was published in France.)

6. Por Telefono was Rizal's response to a Spanish friar who attacked El Filibusterismo. (False. The Spanish friar attacked Noli Me Tangere.)
7. Rizal copied by hand de Morga's Sucesos de las Islas Filipinas while he was at the British Museum. (True)
8. Antonio Ma. Regidor was a Spaniard exiled in London as a result of being implicated in the Cavite Mutiny. (True)
9. On his second trip abroad, Rizal was able to visit Macau - another one of Spain's colonies in Asia. (False. Macau was a Portuguese colony.)
10. In the U.S., Rizal experienced being quarantined on a ship for one week because passengers were not allowed to disembark by the U.S. authorities. (True)